

<https://gov.texas.gov/music/event/cowtown-birthplace-of-western-swing-festival> Cowtown Birthplace of Western Swing Mike Markwardt, Founder 3228 Collinsworth Street ; Fort Worth, TX 76107 (817) 846-4880 Music: Country, Rockabilly, Western Swing Activities: Music festival, Live Music and Dancing, plus a free film screening of the new landmark documentary film - The Birth & History of Western Swing Join us at the 2nd Annual Cowtown Birthplace of Western Swing Festival. A venerable who's who of legendary musicians and devoted fans from across the country gather each year to celebrate the birth of western swing in Fort Worth on the second weekend of November. Our epic festival honors the three founding pillars of Western swing - the Light Crust Doughboys, the Musical Brownies and the famed Texas Playboys. In addition to nine live bands performing at historic National Hall on Thursday, Friday & Saturday, there is also a screening of our landmark documentary film and fun-filled Stockyards Tour featuring Europe's #1 Western swing band at the legendary Longhorn Saloon, with chic western culture shopping, HERD Cattle Drive. Reserved seating is limited, so go to our website to